Pokemon-inspired menus and rooms await

This summer, Grand Hyatt Tokyo in Roppongi Hills is offering guests an exclusive chance to snooze with cuddly Pokemon plushies, feast on eye-catching Snorlax and Pikachu burgers and completely immerse themselves in Pokemon Sleep as the app celebrates its first anniversary.

In the Pokemon Sleep Suite Stay package, the expansive living room of the premium Chairman's Suite is transformed into a "glamping" ground inspired by the woodland glades of the game's Greengrass Isle. After enjoying sumptuous dishes inspired by the app, guests can turn in for a night of deep, restorative sleep on soft and comfortable Frette bed linens and Simmons mattresses.

In the Pokemon Sleep Stay package (available in 10 rooms per night), guests discover a dozing Pokemon Sleep plushie and a Snorlax Die-Cut sleeper towel spread on their bed for a peaceful night's sleep. Along with a buffet breakfast at the French Kitchen, guests can savor fluffy Pikachu and Snorlax pancakes while showing off Pokemon Sleep T-shirts and tote bags.

The delightful creations of the Grand Hyatt chefs complete the Pokemon Sleep experience.

At the Oak Door, the Snorlax burger inspired by the 460-kilogram Pokemon features a 100% American beef patty, bacon, cheddar cheese and smoky tomato relish topped with a striking blue bun. Not to be outdone is the bright yellow Pikachu Desert Burger, which is filled with a chocolate and banana sundae, fresh cream, fruit, chocolate and caramel sauce.
